CITY HALL, JACKSON, MINS., Nov. 20, 1886. At a meeting of the Stockholders of the Building and Loan Association of Jackson. Mississippi, there were present and voting stockholders representing seven hundred and seventy-eight shares. The meeting was pursu out to a call by the President, on petition of eleven stockholders, said petition and call being as follows:

CALL FOR A MEETING. To H. M. Taylor, President of the Building and Loan Association of Jackson, Mississippi: We, the undersigned, stockholders in the Building and Loan Association of Jackson. Mississippi, respectfully request you to call a special meeting of the Stockholders to be held at the City Hall, on Saturday, November 2 th, at 7 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of cusidering the repeal of that part of section Forty-three of the Charter which reads as follows: "The funds and hustiness of each class shall be kept separate, and shall be loaned only to members thereof and no stockholders in any one class shall have any rights or privileges in any other class of which he is not a member. Each class shall pay its proportion of expenses accessary to carry on this Association, which shall be determined by this Board of Directors."

The following resolution was introduced: "That section forty-three 43) of the charter be amended by striking thereived the words "and shall be conned only to members thereof and no stockholder in any one class shall have any rights or privileges in any other class of which he is not a member."
